THE [Numb. 846.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 23, 1761.

BREST, April 14.

WE are no longer in Fear for Martinico. A certain Power, to whom the King has promiſed at the Peace Liberty of Commerce on the Coaſt of that Iſland, has engaged to introduce 3000 Men, with Proviſion and Ammunition, for it's Defence.

LONDON, May 2.

It is ſaid the French are ſo willing to ſee an End put to the War, that if the Empreſs Queen refuſes to concur in ſome advantageous Propoſals which the Court of France propoſes ſoon to make to England, they will agree to a ſeparate Peace, allowing us full Liberty to aſſiſt the King of Pruſſia in whatever Manner we ſhall think proper.

May 6. Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived from Belleiſle, and we hear has brought Advice, that the landed Troops had been five Days in great Want of Proviſions, occaſioned by hard Gales at South-weſt, that prevented their being ſupplied from the Fleet; but when the Expreſs ſet ſail, all Things were in a good Way, and our Batteries were ſoon to begin to play on the Citadel of Palais, where the French, to the Number of 3500 Men, were, and have Plenty of Proviſions and Ammunition, and it was thought would make a very vigorous Defence.

Our Court, it is ſaid, are ſo fully ſatisfied of the great Utility of our being Maſters of Belleiſle, that the ſecond Expedition now fitting out is ordered thither with a Reinforcement of five or ſix compleat Regiments, and ſome Battalions.

The Iſis, Capt. Wheeler, has taken and carried into Gibraltar the Oriflamme, of 50 Guns, and 400 Men: In the Action Capt. Wheeler was killed.

The Truth of the Affair at Belleiſle, as far as it relates to Capt. Oſborne, is, that that Gentleman, with 70 of Erſkine's Grenadiers, got upon a Rock, and defended themſelves againſt 400 French till they were reduced to 19 and their Captain. After they had laid down their Arms, a French Captain came up and killed our brave Engliſh Officer, which a Grenadier obſerving, told him he was a Scoundrel, and then laying him dead on the Spot, jumped down the Rock, and got ſafe on board.

By a private Letter from Belleiſle we are informed, that our Troops had marched ſeven Miles from the Place of Landing, without Oppoſition, when Gen. Hodgſon's Diſpatches were ſent away; the Number of the French Troops on the Iſland were judged to be about 5000, all of whom, with the Inhabitants, had retired with their Effects into the only fortified Town; and that as ſoon as our heavy Cannon ſhould come up, our Forces would immediately beſiege the Place in Form.

The Dutch Papers by Monday's Mail ſay, that a Ceſſation of Arms betwixt the Allied and French Armies was to commence the firſt of May for ſix Months.

It is aſſured, that it has been unanimouſly agreed, that a Suſpenſion of Arms ſhould not take Place, to prevent any Chicanery in any of the Courts concerned in the preſent War.

Upwards of 20,000 Ounces of Plate is ordered to be got ready for the Plenipotentiaries that are to go to the Congreſs.

The Surrender of Guadaloupe, or any of our Acquiſitions on the Continent of America, is abſolutely denied.

It is alſo ſaid, that one Article will be (ſhould the preſent Treaty take Place) that Oſtend and Burges ſhall be ceded to the Crown of France.

A Letter from Augſbourg, dated the 23d ult. ſays, "The Ambaſſadors of the Seven Crowns, which are to form the approaching Congreſs, will arrive here between the 1ſt and 7th of July."

It is ſaid the French Court have propoſed to ſurrender up the Iſland of Minorca, in Lieu of Senegal and Goree; but this, it is ſaid, occaſions ſome Objections.

A Letter from Paris, dated April 21, ſays, "The Exploits of M. Broglio, and the Reception the Britiſh Fleet met with at Belleiſle, from M. de St. Croix, ſeem to have revived the Spirits of the Nation, and make it forget the Diſtreſs to which it was reduced by the War. We forget the Congreſs, and the Suſpenſion of Arms, which a Week ago was looked upon as a Point ſettled with the Court of London; and talk of nothing but the Laurels which M. Broglio is to reap, by making a Conqueſt of Hanover, which hath been reſolved on in Council. It is to facilitate the Execution of this Project, and to oblige the Enemy to evacuate the Biſhoprics of Munſter, Hildeſheim, &c. that M. de Soubiſe is gone to Frankfort to confer with M. Broglio. They propoſe to reduce Prince Ferdinand to the Condition in which the Duke of Cumberland found himſelf, when he ſigned the Convention of Cloſterſeven. Mean while the News which the Court has juſt received, may poſſibly retard the Execution of theſe Plans. M. de Caſtellas, Governor of Weſel, has diſpatched an Expreſs with the melancholy News that our famous Magazine in that Place had taken Fire, and was intirely conſumed, with upwards of 1250,000 Rations of Hay. The Loſs is computed at Two Millions of Livres. Thirty three Soldiers periſhed in the Flames, and when the Poſt left Weſel, the Danger was not over; and it was feared the Flames would reach another Magazine above the Town. As we depended on this Magazine for the Subſiſtence of Soubiſe's Troops, that Army will not act ſo ſoon as was expected.

Letters from Saxony ſay, that after the Pruſſians had defeated the Auſtrians near Egra, they penetrated thro' that Paſs into Bohemia.

Part of the Baggage and Equipages of the Earl of Egremont, and the Hon. General Yorke, appointed by his Majeſty Plenipotentiaries at the enſuing Congreſs, are embarked on board one of the King's Yachts.

It is ſaid that the Expence of the Plenipotentiaries for the ſeveral Powers at the laſt Congreſs at Aix-la-Chapelle, amounted to 1,000,000 of Pounds Sterling.

A Commander of a Ship in Town, who was taken and carried to Denain, ſays, when he left that Place, it was currently reported, that the Engliſh muſt in leſs than 24 Hours be in Poſſeſſion of Belleiſle; and that never had hotter firing been heard than for 48 Hours.

May 7. There is Advice that a large Magazine, eſtabliſhed by the French at Weſel, valued at 120,000 l. accidentally took Fire, and was entirely deſtroyed.

By the Dutch Mails which arrived this Day, we learn, that neither the Pruſſians nor the Auſtrians have as yet done any Thing worth mentioning in Saxony: That it was thought the King would open the Campaign with the Siege of Dreſden: And that M. Daun had received an Expreſs from the Empreſs Queen, to acquaint him, "That, moved with Compaſſion for the Sufferings of Germany, ſhe had conſented to the holding of a Congreſs at Augſbourg; but that he was, nevertheleſs, to follow the Plan ſettled at Vienna, and to endeavour to terminate a War ſo prejudicial to her People by ſome important Enterpriſe."

It is ſaid that the Fiſhery on the Banks of Newfoundland, laſt Year, when the French were excluded, produced to Great-Britain, 14,000 l. Sterling.

The Oriflamme, of 50 Guns, taken by his Majeſty's Ship Iſis, ſailed from Toulon, and had narrowly eſcaped this War, being twice taken; the firſt Time when under the Command of Monſ. Du Quenſe, when that Commander was defeated by Admiral Oſborne, and afterwards in the Squadron belonging to De la Clue, vanquiſhed by Admiral Boſcawen. She is ſaid to have a conſiderable Quantity of Money on board, for the Uſe of the French Colonies. There were near 50 killed and wounded on board the French Ship, and only three on board the Iſis, by the unfortunate Shot that proved the Death of Capt. Wheeler. The Iſis mounted only 44 Guns, at the taking of the Oriflamme.

His Majeſty's Ship Tamer, Captain Lee, is arrived at Portſmouth from New-York; ſhe came out the 6th of April.

The Report of one of our Men of War, belonging to the Expedition Fleet, being ſtranded near Belleiſle, by running too near Shore, is groundleſs.

The Prince Frederick Packet-boat, Captain Copeland, from Falmouth to Liſbon, was drove aſhore near Vigo, by a French Man of War of 64 Guns, and beat to Pieces. The Crew were ſaved, as alſo the Mail.

There are three of his Majeſty's Yachts now fitted, or fitting up at Deptford, for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Miniſters appointed to attend the intended Congreſs, at the Imperial City of Augſbourg, to ſettle the Preliminary Articles for ſettling a general Peace.

Yeſterday Morning a Match of 100 Guineas was rode for on the Eſſex Road from Colcheſter to Whitechapel, being 51 Miles, by two Gentlemen of Acton, Middleſex. One of the Gentlemen rode a ſized Mare, which performed it in three Hours and two Minutes; the other rode a Powney, which performed it in three Hours and twelve Minutes. The Powney, it was thought, was beat through the Unſkilfulneſs of the Rider. The firſt 20 Miles was performed in an Hour and three Minutes, and there was not a Horſe Length Difference until they came within eight Miles of Whitechapel.

The French King has written a Letter to the Archbiſhop of Paris, deſiring him to order Te Deum to be ſung in all the Churches of his Dioceſe for the Advantages gained by his Army under Marſhal Broglio, which Letter concludes thus: "It is "to the GOD of Armies we are to return Thanks "for the Advantages he has deigned to diſpenſe to "us. Let us join thereto the moſt fervent Prayers, "that he may touch the Hearts of our Enemies "with the Calamities occaſioned by the Scourge "of War, and diſpoſe them to liſten to Propoſitions of Peace; wherein I ſhall be ever ready to "acquieſce, for the Good of Mankind, and of "the People whom I govern. In writing this "Letter, my Intention is that you cauſe Te Deum, "&c. At Verſailles the 3d of April, 1761.

"Signed LOUIS."

By a Letter from Cadiz we have Advice that the Lady of Aſſumption, bound from thence to Majorca, met with an Algerine Corſair; which, after an obſtinate Engagement of three Hours and a Half, blew up; the Spaniards took up only ten Men and three Boys, whom they made Priſoners. This Corſair was commanded by Alonſo Mendoza, a Portugueze Renegade, who was killed the ſecond Broadſide; the Ship mounted ten Carriage Guns, and had 80 Men. They had taken two Portugueze and one Spaniſh Veſſel the Day before. The Lady of Aſſumption mounted only ſix Nine-Pounders, with 30 Men and two Boys. The Spaniards had five Men killed, and eight wounded.

They write from Cologn that two Impoſtors lately came to that City, who gave out that they were each 700 Years old; they ſay they came from Damaſcus, from whence they paſſed through Cracovia, and from thence thither. They are bareſoot, badly clothed, and live on Bread and Water only; they fortell nothing but ill News, Wars, Inundations, and Conflagrations, and that the World will have an End in 1773; they talk Latin, Greek, Hebrew and Chaldean; they were at firſt impriſoned, and the common People reported they had broke their Chains. They have been baniſhed that City and its Territories, and are now ſhaping their Way towards Rome.

The

The King of Denmark is endeavouring to promote the exclusive Sale of Tobacco, manufactured in his own Kingdom, by assigning very large Premiums to Mr. Borre, who is at the Head of this Project, as well as to the several Dealers who shall vend it. Counsellor Coderfield also, the first who formed the Scheme, has had a Pension of 1000 Crowns a Year settled on him during Life. Thus are the Danes endeavouring to vie with us in one of the most valuable Branches of Commerce; and from the Measures taken by his Majesty to encourage every Thing than can be produced in his own Kingdoms, of which the late Edict against importing Aquafortis is a singular Instance, we may soon expect to see them shine as a trading Power.

BOSTON, July 6.

Notwithstanding a Paragraph in the London Prints, of April 30, which says, "That by Authority we can assure the Public that Belleisle is taken, &c." yet a Print of the 7th of May says, Our last Advices from our Forces at Belleisle, which arrived here on Tuesday last, are, That the English Troops had landed most of their Artillery. —That the French, to the Number of 3500 Men, were retired to the Citadel, where they have Plenty of Provisions and Ammunition, and 'twas thought they would make a vigorous Defence.—— On receiving this Intelligence, two Battalions were immediately ordered to embark forthwith, in order to reinforce the Army at Belleisle.——Several Officers of Distinction have already been slain at Belleisle, among whom are Sir William Peere, Major M'Pherson, Major Purcell, Captain Osborne, &c. Sir William was shot dead by a Musket Ball, as he was reconnoitring too near the Citadel. The Report of Lord Pultney being killed, is entirely groundless.

Notwithstanding a Congress is appointed to be held in a short Time at Augsbourg, by the Belligerant Powers at War, for settling a general Peace, a very large Fleet is fitting out at Portsmouth, and the greatest Preparations making to continue the War the ensuing Summer with the greatest Vigour.

Captain Folger left Portsmouth in Company with three Mast-ships for Piscataqua, and 8 or 10 other Vessels for different Parts, under Convoy of the Chesterfield Man of War, who was to proceed with the Mast-ships to Piscataqua. Captain Folger informs, that there had been no Advices from Belleisle for near a Fortnight before he sailed, occasioned by the long Run of Northerly Winds, but that it was not doubted the whole Island was in our Possession. That the Packet for New-York was to sail about the Middle of May; and that Capt. Diamond, in a Ship for this Place, was to sail in about three Weeks after him.

By Captain Bennet, who was taken on his Passage from the West-Indies for this Place, and carried into Cape François, and who came to Town last Saturday, we learn, that a Vessel was arrived at the Cape from Bourdeaux, which she left the 8th of May, and gave an Account that the whole Island of Belleisle was in the Possession of the English.

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Monday last arrived at the Hook his Majesty's Ship Assistance, of 50 Guns, William Norton, Esq; Commander. She sailed from Spithead the latter End of April, as Convoy to the Virginia and Maryland Fleets, and having seen them safe into the Capes, she proceeded to Sandy-Hook. We hear she has brought upwards of 30,000 Pounds Sterling, being Part of the Parliamentary Grant for the Use of these Northern Colonies. It is said 25,000l. of it is for this Government.

Captain Whitemarsh, of the Sloop Endeavour, who arrived here last Tuesday from Cape-Fear, informs us, that several Vessels came in there just before he sailed, with Advice, that four Sail of Privateers, viz. a Brig, two Sloops, and a Schooner, had been seen cruising between the Capes of Virginia and Delaware, and had taken several Vessels in their Sight, some of which were from England; and that those Vessels who brought the News (being Whalemen) narrowly escaped being taken.

We have Advice from several Parts of East-New-Jersey, that the late hot Weather had much blasted many Fields of Wheat, to the great Disappointment of the poor Farmers Hopes.

We hear that on Monday last a Man and a Woman in this City, expired with the violent Heat of the Weather.

By Captain M'Dougall, who arrived here on Monday last in 30 Days from Santa Croix, we hear, that Commodore Douglas had attacked and taken the Island of DOMINICA, possessed chiefly by Indians mixed with French: That there was Advice at Santa Croix, that one of the Transport Ships that sailed from this Port the 2d of May last, with a Party of the Royal Welch Volunteers on board, supposed to be bound for Guadaloupe, was taken by a French Privateer, and carried into Martinico: And that another of those Transports had been boarded by a French Privateer, who had been obliged to sheer off, and leave most of her Men behind, who were all cut off, but with the Loss of an English Officer, and one other Man in the Fray.

Sunday last came in here a Sloop————, late Captain belonging to Virginia, which had been taken by a French Privateer Sloop from the Mississippi, and ordered to that Place; but on the 6th of last Month was met with by Captain James Creighton, of a Letter of Marque Sloop belonging to this Port, who altered her Course, by retaking her and sending her in here. The Privateer had also taken a Vessel belonging to Philadelphia, which she had sent to Mississippi.

July 13. Friday last Capt. Cleague arrived here in nine Weeks from Madeira. Fourteen Days ago he spoke with Captain Macnamara, in a Snow from Liverpool, for North-Carolina, who had been just 7 Weeks out, and informed him, That the English Fleet, under the Command of Commodore Keppel, had taken the Island of Belleisle, on the Coast of France; that they had lost a great Number of Men in the Landing; and that most of the Men of War were gone to Quiberon Bay.

Three Days before Capt. Cleague spoke with Capt. Macnamara, he fell in with Captain Lilley, from St. Kitts for Boston, who acquainted him, That certain Advice was received at St. Kitts, that three Privateers, and a King's Frigate, were fitting out at Martinico for the Coast of North-America; and that the Privateers were a Brig and two Sloops.

Saturday last Captain Hibbs, in a Sloop, arrived here in 14 Days from St. Kitts: Two Days before he left that Island, Captain Read, in the Oliver Cromwell, of that Place, carried in there 2 French Privateers, one of which mounted 14 Guns, and the other 10; that a Letter of Marque Ship was just arrived at St. Kitts, from South-Carolina, that had been taken the Day after she sailed over Charles-Town Bar, by a French Privateer Sloop, after an obstinate Engagement, the Ship having expended all her Ammunition, but was afterwards ransomed.

Capt. Hibbs touched at St. Martins, and was acquainted there by the Captains of some French Privateers, just chased in by an English Man of War, that no less than 12 or 14 French Privateers were fitted out at Martinico for the Coast of America. Captain Hibbs confirms the Account abovementioned, of the taking of Dominica.

The Ship we mentioned in our last, to have chased the Captains Chambers and Sheldon off Sandy-Hook, and supposed an Enemy, was his Majesty's Ship the Penzance, Captain Doake.

Two Weeks ago we acquainted the Publick of five Sail of the Cork Fleet, bound to Jamaica, being taken and carried into Port Louis, on Hispaniola, by a French Man of War; we can now assure them for certain, that said Account was true; that three of the Ships belonged to London, and one Ship and a Brig to Liverpool; and that Capt. M'Alpine, from South Carolina for Jamaica, and a Snow from Coracoa for this Port, were carried in there also; that there was great Plenty of Provisions at Port Louis, insomuch that the best of Irish Beef was at one Pistole a Barrel, and Flour a perfect Drug.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.

The Betty, Captain Robeson, of this Port, but last from South-Carolina for London, was taken in Sight of the Ships at Spithead, by a Cutter Privateer belonging to Calais, but was afterwards lost going into Cherbourg, and very little of the Cargo saved.

ANNAPOLIS, July 23.

By Capt. Porteous, who arrived here on Monday last, in the Bolling, from Glasgow, in Nine Weeks, we are informed, that they had News there of the Island of Belleisle being actually in the Possession of the English.

Baltimore, July 1761.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to sollicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in compleating a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has sollicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.
